SEMH Learning Support Assistant

We are a supportive, inclusive and caring school that welcomes all children.

We are looking to appoint a highly motivated, empathetic and resilient SEMH learning support assistant who has experience of working with children with special education needs, in particular SEMH. This person will have an understanding of SEMH and the challenges that this brings for children.

You will be supporting and nurturing pupils who have SEMH difficulties. You will be responsible for supporting them throughout their time in the setting. You will help the children to progress socially and academically by working closely with a SEMH team, as well as other school staff. You will be expected to feedback to class teachers and SENCOs about the child's progress and general wellbeing.

You will also be expected to work independently with small groups and plan and prepare for this. You will need to have patience as well as good behaviour management skills, or the ability to develop them. You will also need a passion for working with young people and supporting those with barriers to their learning. All of the young people we serve have EHCPs with the majority of primary needs revolving around SEMH, a large percentage of our cohort have diagnosis of ASD and ADHD. We are committed to staff professional learning and this role could provide a stepping stone towards either qualified teacher status or HLTA providing recognised pathways for career progression at all levels.

You will ideally hold a Level 3 teaching assistant qualification or higher, however, experience of working in schools or with pupils is acceptable. You will ideally have experience of working with and supporting children with SEN in a school setting. You will have experience or a passion of providing support for SEN children and be confident in meeting their needs. Ideally you will have an understanding of the National Curriculum and issues surrounding SEMH children and you will have developed good behaviour management skills.

Most importantly you will have a passion for working with children with additional needs and be a positive and enthusiastic team player.

In addition, there are benefits to being a colleague at Woodfield's School

- Social committee with subsidised events
- Revision sessions paid for (Subject to minimum numbers)
- Occupational health and counselling support
- Cycle Scheme
- Free Flu jabs and other vaccinations
- Potential to work across more than one school/phase if appropriate
- Free onsite parking
- Free tea and coffee

Why work at Woodfield School?

On behalf of our entire school community I extend a warm welcome to Woodfield School and hope you take the opportunity to also explore our website. Please take time to learn about our wonderful students and staff and gain a full understanding of how we work together to support student development and progress at every stage of our students' education journey.

Woodfield is a Social Emotional and Mental Health (SEMH) school with the aspiration to be the very best in the country! Woodfield is at a very exciting point in its improvement journey with the impending co location of all our provisions on one site at the former Woodlands school for boys on Broad Lane. This exciting project will allow us to create bespoke specialised environments to support meeting the needs of our students alongside designing and implementing a truly aspirational curriculum for our young people.

Our Woodfield vision is for all students to make exceptional progress. That progress encompasses both rigorous academic progresses, gaining qualifications to unlock further education and employability routes and the knowledge and skills to understand and manage the social, emotional and mental health barriers faced by every individual.

We are very proud of our staff, students and wider school community. Our staff are highly skilled, and dedicated and provide a personalised approach to all students, who are supported by a team around each child approach. We foster a culture of warmth, care and empathy which is underpinned by our three school principles. Effort, Respect and Ambition (ERA) these are the non-negotiable trademark behaviours that are the expected norm in the classrooms of Woodfield for every single member of the Woodfield community.

We work in partnership with all parents, carers and external agencies and welcome regular two-way communication and feedback.

We are a rapidly improving SEMH specialist setting on an exciting journey. Our goal is to be the very best provision in the country and we will continue to strive for 'excellence in SEMH education' for all our stakeholders.
