About Coventry City Council

Who we are: At Coventry City Council we are dedicated to making a positive difference to the services we deliver to the diverse citizens of Coventry. The work we do improves people's lives – from helping them into work to providing clean and green places to live, to keeping people safe and protected.

As a Coventry City Council employee, you have our ongoing commitment to your growth and development with opportunities to work across multiple service areas including customer contact, public health prevention and education and skills, adults and children's services and provide support for the most vulnerable.

Our aim is simple – to be globally connected, locally committed, deliver our priorities with fewer resources whilst effectively managing our performance and measuring our progress.

Our Values: We expect everyone who works for us to be committed to our One Coventry values and to share our commitment to becoming a more diverse and inclusive organisation:

About the Service your team will provide

Purpose of the role / Output

To be a member of the Coventry Outdoors staff team delivering a range of outdoor and environmental education activities in a variety of settings working with children, young people, families, schools and groups across Coventry.

To support with planning of and lead on delivery of projects, programmes & sessions throughout the year and specifically working on our Education and Curriculum programmes offered to Coventry schools and working on our Holiday Activity Camps during the holiday periods.

To be responsible for delivering informative, safe, fun and interactive activity sessions ensuring that current best-practice in relation to the welfare and health and safety of children and young people is followed.

As well as leading sessions, you will contribute to the pastoral care of children and young people providing a high standard of physical, emotional and social care offered by Coventry Outdoors.

Main Duties & Key Accountabilities

Core Knowledge

- To instruct groups of all ages and abilities in a range of activities including bushcraft, survival, orienteering, river studies, team building and invasion games.
- To assist with the delivery of the holiday activity programmes for children and young people focusing on participation, development and enjoyment, working both alone and alongside other staff.
- Be expected to work professionally within the team and on your own initiative, sometimes without direct supervision.
- To be punctual, ensuring effective personal planning and preparation and to dress and act in a professional manner at all times.
- Take a pastoral role as a group leader, welcoming new children and young people into your group, supervising and engage with children and young people during activities and outside of activity time
- Continuously promote the welfare of children and young people in your care.
- Show high levels of energy, enthusiasm and professionalism, acting as a suitable role model for the children and young people.
- To complete any documentation required relating to group sessions; e.g. individual record cards, assessments and any other relevant documentation.
- Carry out the duties of this post with due regard to relevant Council policies and in line with the Safety Policies and Operating Procedures of the Outdoor Education Service
- Other ad hoc duties (e.g cleaning, equipment maintenance etc).

Physical Demands

The work requires moderate levels of physical effort. It involves lifting and handling of activity equipment, play equipment and other resources and to be involved in practical activities and physical care of learners and the physical environment.

The activities for some levels is mainly outdoors and this will require at times delivering in unpredictable weather conditions.

You are required to be a role model for the staff and students you work with.
