The Post

The post requires an experienced and passionate Early Years teacher with excellent classroom and leadership skills. The successful applicant will have a clear vision and understanding of Early Years education and will have the necessary skills to build on our existing strengths. It will provide the successful candidate with the opportunity to join the school at an exciting time in our on-going development, and to further develop our high-quality nursery provision. Recent experience of teaching the Early Years curriculum is essential, along with a passion to work in this part of the school. The person appointed will have responsibility for nursery provision including leading and directing the work of the other nursery staff. This is a permanent position.

The school has a well-established induction programme and support is provided for newly appointed staff. All staff are provided with a laptop and an Ipad.

Candidates should indicate in their applications their views on (approx. half A4 side on each):

- The implications for teaching, learning and assessment in the Early Years Foundation Stage regarding the Early Years Foundation Stage curriculum and assessment
- Teaching style and classroom organisation in Early Years and how these impact on children's learning including any curriculum strengths and interests
- An example of an Early Years development that you have successfully led and its impact on the school
- The main priorities in leading a well-established extended nursery to support the school's drive to move towards outstanding

Please return completed forms to the school at admin@manorpark.coventry.sch.uk by 9am on Wednesday March 2nd 2022. A separate CV is not required.
