Job Purpose
Accommodation Navigators deliver personalised guidance, housing-related assistance, and advice to individuals with experiences of rough sleeping. They serve as primary contacts for tenants or rough sleepers, helping maintain housing stability and reducing homelessness.

Main Duties & Key Accountabilities
Providing support and intervention to customers to help them access and maintain accommodation in a positive, proactive, and consistent manner.
Identifying obstacles hindering stable housing and maintaining tenancies while offering support such as benefits guidance and tenancy-related skill development.

Providing assistance with budgeting, household tasks, neighbour interactions, community service engagement, and communication with property owners.
Building and maintaining relationships with customers to provide personalised support, promoting choice and wellbeing through regular contact and community visits.
Conducting thorough needs and risk assessments collaboratively with every customer.
Being adaptable and flexible, remaining resilient to setbacks and refusals, supports stability and advancement for customers to achieve tailored results.
Developing, maintaining, and coordinating effective professional relationships with external organisations to ensure seamless collaboration and access to necessary support services.
Maintaining precise case files with detailed written records on individuals supported and frequently reviewing the personalised support plan to document progress.
Adopting a psychologically informed approach involves supporting and coaching customers, incorporating insights from PIE training and reflective practices.
Working flexibly across a seven-day week to fulfil service requirements, including occasional early mornings, evenings, and weekends.
