NOTE:

- 'Governors' are advised to focus on determining whether the candidates meet the requirements in relation to the ten broad categories, rather than in relation to the individual criteria that are used to illustrate them.
- The criteria may be evidenced across a broad continuum, ranging from evidence that is minimal through to evidence that is substantial and secure.
- It is expected that evidence of meeting these criteria will be gathered from scrutinising the candidate's application and observing all the various aspects of the interview process.

•	Governors may wish to determine at the outset in which aspects of the selection process they will seek to find evidence to meet the above criteria.
