

St James

Church of England Academy

Teaching Assistants, SEND Support

Are you the right person for this key role within the academy and community?

We are seeking to recruit two experienced, highly-skilled practitioners to support the development of pupils with additional needs. Previous experience in supporting pupils with SEND and/or those in EYFS would be advantageous but not essential.

The successful candidate will:

- Be approachable, caring and empathetic
- Use pupils' individual targets, including those detailed in EHCPs, to plan, deliver, amend/adapt curriculum delivery accordingly with support of the SENCO
- Have experience of supporting pupils personal care needs (with training and supervision) and provide care for specified pupils, or willingness to undertake relevant training in order to do so

In return, St James can offer you:

- Brilliant students who are proud to be part of St James C of E Academy
- Fantastic and supportive staff, community and governors
- Excellent professional development opportunities
- Close working links and opportunities with other primary schools across the Trust and the Bedworth Consortia of schools
